

Ohio Desk is Lakeland’s Strategic Furniture Partner. Many of the product lines represented are highlighted throughout the campus including the Holden University Center & the Health Technologies Building.

- This benefit is available to all individuals employed by the College in any capacity. At this time, Ohio Desk is not asking for proof of employment at the College.
- Products can be viewed online using the links below. While not a retail store, a ‘by appointment only’ visit to their corporate office and commercial workspace showroom may be requested by contacting the representative noted below. Their corporate office and showroom, located at 1122 Prospect Avenue in Cleveland, are open Monday through Friday from 8:30 AM – 4:30 PM.
- The prices shown in the clearance section of the Ohio Desk catalog are not eligible for additional discounts. The discounts available to employees from the Steelcase, Blu Dot & West Elm catalogs are significant but also vary from product to product. The Ohio Desk representative listed below will be able to provide the level of discount applicable to any item; likewise, she can discuss how to place an order and pay for your purchase.
- There may be additional charges for assembly in addition to any charges for delivering items to employees’ homes. These charges will be calculated at the time of purchase. Alternatively, employees may be able to pick up items from the Ohio Desk distribution center located at 4851 Van Epps Rd. in Brooklyn Heights.

Ohio Desk offers Lakeland employees a creative discount structure for their home office purchases from the following websites:
